

WICB Announce Changes to SA Tour

Tuesday, 09 February 2010

The West Indies Cricket Board (WICB) and Cricket South Africa (CSA) have announced a change to the itinerary for the Digicel Series 2010, to be played in the West Indies.

An additional T20 International match has been added to the schedule. The Digicel Series will now see the two teams playing three Tests, five One-Day Internationals and two T20 Internationals. On the original schedule there was just one T20 International but the two boards have agreed to have an additional match.

The two T20 Internationals will both be played at the Queen's Park Oval in Trinidad. The ODI series starts in Trinidad with two matches, followed by two matches at Windsor Park in Dominica and the fifth and final match at Sabina Park in Jamaica. The first Digicel Test will be played at Sabina Park; the second Digicel Test at Warner Park, St Kitts and the final Digicel Test at Kensington Oval in Barbados.
